SIX REASONS TO VISIT PUERTO RICO THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

Did you know Puerto Rico celebrates one of the longest holiday seasons in the world? The holiday season lasts about 45 days, from Thanksgiving Day through mid-January.

During the holiday season, the Island is alive with colorful decorations, delicious food, authentic music and grand festivals to mark different points of the season.

If you want to have a truly magical holiday experience this year, check out these six reasons why you should consider visiting Puerto Rico this winter.

1. Festivities

Get ready to experience the party that never stops. During the extended holiday season, you can participate in several vibrant festivities, including multiday events. Puerto Ricans begin decorating for the holidays right after Thanksgiving, if not sooner, and leave the décor on display well into January.

You're probably used to Christmas Day being the most important day of the holiday season, but in Puerto Rico, nothing is more important than Nochebuena, or Christmas Eve. On Nochebuena, family and friends have dinner, exchange gifts, go out on parrandas and maybe even attend a midnight mass.

On Dec. 31, ring in the New Year at a Vispera de Año Nuevo celebration. At midnight, Puerto Ricans celebrate the arrival of the new year with fireworks over an ocean view under the moon and starlight.

Christmas Eve isn't the only time to exchange gifts. In January, Puerto Ricans celebrate Three Kings Day, which commemorates the Three Wise Men's visit after Jesus was born. Across the Island, you'll see parades with people dressed like the Three Wise Men handing out presents to children. Kids also gather grass or hay in shoeboxes and place them under beds for the Three Wise Men's animals in exchange for presents.

Fiestas de la Calle San Sebastián or SanSe - the largest and most popular festival in Puerto Rico - officially closes the holiday season. The party ends in Old San Juan with a lively street festival with music, dancing, traditional food and artisanal crafts.

2. Food

One of the best ways to explore a culture is through authentic dishes, and there's no better season to savor authentic Boricua cuisine than the holidays. Get ready to indulge in arroz con gandules (rice with pigeon peas), lechón asado (spit-roasted pork), pasteles (tamal-like patties of green banana and meat) and other flavorful dishes.

No holiday is complete without a signature drink. Eggnog may come to mind, but in Puerto Rico, locals drink coquito. This thick, creamy holiday beverage is made of coconut milk, sweetened condensed milk, evaporated milk, local rum and spices.

3. Music

Merry music and musical traditions are key elements of the holidays in Puerto Rico. Throughout the whole season, you'll witness parrandas, the Boricua version of caroling. Small groups visit friends and family late at night and wake them with aguinaldos, villancicos and trovas - local folk versions of Christmas songs. As the parranderos visit homes, they'll sing, eat, drink and spread holiday cheer all over the Island until sunrise.

4. Weather

Ready to escape the cold winter weather? Take advantage of Puerto Rico's warm weather this holiday season! In Puerto Rico, you can enjoy a sunny festive season, with an average temperature of 70-85 degrees F from November-January.

The warm weather also means you can enjoy outdoor activities like swimming, kayaking, snorkeling and hiking in a temperate, tropical climate. So, shed your layers and trade snow for sand and chilly winds for a gentle ocean breeze.

5. Accessibility

No passport? No problem! American citizens and permanent residents can visit the Island with just a valid ID to enter Puerto Rico.

You won't have any difficulty finding flights to the Heart and Soul of the Caribbean. There are several short, convenient flights from the U.S. mainland to the heart of Puerto Rico, including direct routes from major cities like New York, Chicago and Dallas.

If you haven't brushed up on your Spanish, you're in luck because the two official languages on the Island are English and Spanish. Also, you won't need to worry about exchanging currency. Puerto Rico uses the U.S. dollar, so you'll have no problem buying last-minute Christmas gifts and souvenirs.

6. Live Boricua

Boricua - the Puerto Rican identity - is more than just a name. It's a state of mind. When you Live Boricua, you can immerse yourself in the joy of life that is at the center of Puerto Rico and shared by its people and all who visit. During your holiday trip, embrace the rich traditions, warm hospitality and festive atmosphere of the Island so you can create memories to last a lifetime.

AMERICAN BALLET THEATRE'S THE NUTCRACKER RETURNS TO SEGERSTROM CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Segerstrom Center for the Arts announces the return of Southern California's favorite holiday tradition – American Ballet Theatre's captivating production of The Nutcracker coming to Segerstrom Hall stage with 13 performances from December 12 - 22, 2024. This year marks the ninth season that the Center has presented ABT's The Nutcracker, Southern California's grandest and glorious production of this beloved holiday ballet, featuring ABT's international all-star cast under ABT Artistic Director Susan Jaffe, who was appointed in 2022.

Co-presented by the Center and American Ballet Theatre with choreography by Alexei Ratmansky, The Nutcracker is the beloved holiday story based on The Nutcracker and the King of Mice written by E.T.A. Hoffmann and set to Peter Ilyitch Tchaikovsky's magical score performed live by Pacific Symphony.

American Ballet Theatre has produced several critically acclaimed productions of this family-friendly classic tale of Clara and the Nutcracker over the years. The Nutcracker, with its timeless music by Tchaikovsky and splendid costumes and scenery, is the perfect way to introduce children to ballet and inspire them to study dance and become a little Clara or Nutcracker Prince themselves. This production, with choreography by Alexei Ratmansky, scenery and costumes by Tony Award® winner Richard Hudson (Disney's The Lion King), and lighting by Tony Award® winner Jennifer Tipton, received its World Premiere in 2010.

Casting for The Nutcracker
ABT Artistic Director Susan Jaffe has released principal casting which will include Hee Seo as Clara, the Princess, and Cory Stearns as The Nutcracker Prince on Opening Night, Thursday, December 12.

ABT Principal Dancer Chloe Misseldine will debut as Clara at the evening performance on Saturday, December 14. Of Misseldine, The New York Times said that in Swan Lake this summer she gave "an extraordinary performance of the kind that reminds us how rare it is for a dancer to have not only access to strength and delicacy, but also the ability to weave them together in real time. [When] after a tremendous Swan Lake performance, Chloe Misseldine was promoted onstage [to principal dancer] at the Metropolitan Opera House. The audience went nuts."

Tickets for American Ballet Theatre's The Nutcracker start at $32.77 and are available for purchase online at scfta.org, in person at 600 Town Center Drive, Costa Mesa, CA 92626, and by phone at (714) 556-2787. # NOV. 18-25: LOCAL DROP-OFF LOCATIONS TO OPEN FOR OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

Volunteers are preparing to collect Operation Christmas Child shoebox gifts during National Collection Week, Nov. 18 – 25. More than 4,700 drop-off locations will open across the country in November, and shoebox packers can find their local drop-off locations nearest them.

Since 1993, Operation Christmas Child has been collecting and delivering gift-filled shoeboxes to children including many who are suffering from war, poverty, disease and disaster. Operation Christmas Child hopes to reach another 12 million children.

Shoebox packing is fun for individuals, families and groups! Find a step-by-step guide on the How to Pack a Shoebox webpage. The project partners with people across the globe to deliver these gifts to children in need. Participants can donate $10 per shoebox gift online through "Follow Your Box" and receive a tracking label to discover its destination.

"Children need hope," said Franklin Graham, president of Samaritan's Purse. "Gift-filled shoeboxes open the door for us to share hope with boys and girls around the world. We hope that are gifts will uplift the children's spirits. Participants can find the nearest drop-off location and hours of operation as they make plans to drop off their shoebox gifts. The online lookup tool is searchable by City or ZIP code. Signs at each location will identify the drop-off.

Operation Christmas Child, a project of Samaritan's Purse, helps to give gifts to children in need around the world. Since 1993, Operation Christmas Child has collected and delivered more than 220 million gift-filled shoeboxes to children in more than 170 countries and territories.

FESTIVE FOODS FOR YOUR DOG THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

Bring on the list-making, gift-giving, party-going time of year. The holiday season would also feel incomplete without delicious dishes to keep everyone feeling merry and bright. By everyone, that includes canine companions, too.

Consider this list of pup- and pet-parent-approved festive foods, as well as those to avoid, from the experts at Petcurean, makers of premium quality, nutrient-rich food for pets:

Enjoy steamed vegetables: Holiday feasts are all about the side dishes. Dogs can savor their own sides with plain vegetables like steamed green beans or carrots, making for a flavorful, nutritious addition to their meals. Vegetables are packed with vitamins and minerals, and steaming them allows more of the nutrients to be retained while also supporting proper digestion. Be sure to chop veggies into small pieces and stay clear of seasoning or sauce.

Avoid chocolate: There's no way to sugarcoat it – chocolate is a no-go for dogs. The presence of both caffeine and a chemical called theobromine makes chocolate toxic to dogs because they aren't able to metabolize them the way humans can. If ingested, chocolate can lead to a spike in heart rate and blood pressure, as well as vomiting, diarrhea, agitation, seizures and more. If ingested, pet parents should monitor their pup closely and check with a veterinarian.

Enjoy fresh meats: When cooked, fresh meat such as chicken, turkey, pork or beef can satisfy cravings while also offering pups a nutritious meal that is easy to digest. Pet parents can also choose a kibble made with fresh meats as a convenient option that supports dogs' overall wellness, such as Now Fresh Good Gravy, which is made with easily digested fresh meats and nutrient-dense fruits and veggies, and by adding water, a delicious bone broth gravy is created for your pup to enjoy.

Avoid table scraps: For many reasons, it's best to skip the table scraps. Not only could an allergen or toxin be present that pet parents may not be aware of, there are several other health risks associated with feeding dogs table scraps, such as digestive issues (vomiting, diarrhea, etc.) and even more serious problems like pancreatitis. Plus, giving dogs calorie-dense food can contribute to obesity.

Enjoy pumpkin: A staple of holiday feasts, pumpkin is not off the table for pups to enjoy. In fact, pumpkin is a superfood full of nutrients. Feeding dogs cooked or plain canned pumpkin can also be beneficial for their digestion because pumpkin contains fiber – just be sure to serve it free of seasonings like sugar and spices.

Just like their pet parents, pups deserve to indulge a little over the holidays, but it's important to ensure what they eat leaves them feeling great. Remember to always check with a veterinarian about any concerns, especially when introducing new foods, and visit nowfresh.com to find personalized nutrition crafted for your pet.

Hope is not the conviction that something will turn out well but the certainty that something makes sense, regardless of how it turns out.

Handy Hacks to Take the Stress Out of Holiday Hosting

FAMILY FEATURES

Hosting is a big responsibility, especially during the holidays when the pressure is on to create a magical and memorable experience. Planning a menu and decorating for the occasion is just the start.

Hosting also means ensuring all dishes are cooked to perfection and kept warm until serving time, guests' dietary needs are considered and table conversation topics are ready. Then, of course, there's the post-dinner cleanup.

This holiday season, consider these tips to help tackle your hosting duties with grace and create an event you can enjoy, too.

Request RSVPs

Planning a party is even more complicated when you don't know how many guests you'll be entertaining. If you create a guest list and ask invitees to let you know their plans, you'll have a better idea whether you should double your favorite dishes. You'll also know who has special dietary needs and be able to plan a seating chart that puts everyone at ease. Be sure to include a date that gives guests a specific RSVP deadline and plenty of time for you to adjust your plans before the big day.

Meal Prep as Much as Possible

Get as much of the food preparation out of the way ahead of time as you can. Some dishes can be prepared and even cooked ahead of time so you're just reheating, but you can also save a lot of time by organizing ingredients for the dishes that must be prepared the day of the event. A good rule of thumb: If it doesn't have to wait until the day of the party, do it before. That frees up your time so you can handle any unexpected hiccups that arise without piling on more stress.

Simplify the Cleanup Situation

Rely on tried-and-true products that do the heavy lifting for you when it's time to clean up after the meal. An option like Finish Ultimate Dishwashing Detergent cleans dishes in tough conditions, even without pre-rinsing, so you can focus on what matters during this time of year: spending more time with your loved ones. It removes tough stains like grease and cheese, as well as common holiday dishes like apple pie and mac and cheese. An added bonus: Since you don't need to pre-rinse, you'll save up to 20 gallons of water per dishwasher load.

Create Designated Spaces

Guests are likely to arrive with items in hand that need a place to go, like coats, shoes, handbags and gifts. Avoid clutter by determining ahead of time where you want to put these items. If you have a coat closet with space, that's a good solution, but a nearby bedroom may also be an option. Especially if you're hosting a potluck meal, be sure to plan ahead for where each course should go, with appetizer bars, dessert tables and a countertop with protective pads for warm foods.

Send Guests Off with a Parting Gift

A memorable event can be made even more so when guests have a token to take with them. Send everyone home on a happy note with a simple gift like a prewrapped holiday treat. Be sure to tuck these away someplace near the door so they're a pleasant surprise you can access easily when guests begin to make their exits.

Find more ways to tackle holiday messes and make hosting duties a breeze by visiting finishdishwashing.com.

Jalapeno Cornbread Mac and Cheese

Jalapeno Cornbread:

- 1/2 cup butter, melted, plus additional for greasing pan
- 1 cup medium grind cornmeal
- 1 cup flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup buttermilk
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup corn
- 1/2 cup chopped jalapeno (about 2 large jalapenos)

Mac and Cheese:

- 1/2 pound dry macaroni
- 2 tablespoons butter, plus additional for greasing pan
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 2 cups milk
- 2 teaspoons Dijon mustard
- 12 ounces shredded cheese
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- pepper, to taste

To make jalapeno cornbread: Preheat oven to 400 F. Butter 8-by-8-inch baking pan. In mixing bowl, combine cornmeal, flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt.

In another bowl, whisk buttermilk, eggs, 1/2 cup melted butter, corn and jalapeno.

Add half the liquid ingredients to dry mixture, stirring just until blended. Add rest of liquid and stir until just blended. Pour batter into prepared pan and bake 30-35 minutes, or until knife inserted in center comes out clean. Set aside to cool.

To make mac and cheese: Bring large pot of water to boil. Add macaroni and cook according to package directions. Drain under cold water and set aside.

Preheat oven to 350 F. Butter 9-by-9-inch square baking dish.

In heavy saucepan, melt 2 tablespoons butter. Add flour and whisk over low heat 3-5 minutes, making sure not to brown.

Whisk in milk and cook over medium heat, whisking often until mixture thickens, about 5 minutes. Stir in mustard and cheese.

Add salt and pepper, to taste. Add macaroni and stir until noodles are coated with cheese mixture. Pour mixture into prepared pan. Use back of spoon or spatula to even out mixture in pan.

Bake 25 minutes until mixture is bubbly.

Remove from oven, turn oven to broil and place rack on second from top. Break up about 1/3-1/2 of the cornbread into small pieces; place even layer of broken-up cornbread over top of mac and cheese. Put mac and cheese under broiler until lightly browned. Serve immediately with remaining cornbread or make ahead and warm before serving.

Tip: For spicier cornbread, keep some jalapeno seeds intact.

POST-PARTY CLEANING TIPS

1. Don't be afraid to ask for help, especially from your partner or children.
2. Prep your table the night before. Get sparkling dishes and glassware by using a product such as Finish Jet-Dry Rinse Aid, which assists in drying and helping your dishes shine when used in the rinse cycle.
3. Start by collecting trash and clutter. Throw trash away and create piles of items that need returned to their proper places. Remember that taking a few extra minutes to organize things like seasonal decor as you go can help make next year's event easier.
4. Complete each job before moving to the next. Some prefer to tackle a room at a time while others prefer to finish a specific chore, like sweeping the floors throughout the house, before moving on.

5. Be realistic about what must be done before you sleep. Some tasks really do need immediate attention, like collecting and emptying glasses that could be spilled and safely storing leftover food. The rest can likely wait until after you get some rest.

CASA ROMANTICA ANNOUNCES CAPTIVATING EVENTS AND PROGRAMMING SCHEDULE FOR NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER

Casa Romantica Cultural Center and Gardens, the premier museum destination for arts and culture in Southern California, is thrilled to announce an exciting lineup of events for November and December, with the beautifully restored Main Salon recently reopened to host an array of unforgettable experiences.

"We're thrilled to bring such a diverse lineup of events to Casa Romantica this season," said Kylie Travis, Director of Programs and Partnerships. "Casa Romantica's mission as a museum and cultural center is to enrich lives through the arts, and this season's programs truly reflect that vision. I am personally excited about our ongoing 'Power of Reconciliation' art exhibition, which beautifully bridges past and present, as well as our beloved annual production of The Nutcracker, a cherished holiday tradition."

Daily through December 15th, visitors can immerse themselves in Casa Romantica's art gallery, exploring "The Power of Reconciliation," the latest exhibition by Mexican artist Lourdes Villagómez. This powerful exhibit delves into pre-Hispanic deities of Mexico, blending ancient symbols with contemporary Mexican culture. A highlight of the exhibition is the wall of over twenty vibrant sugar skulls.

For those who wish to take a piece of the artwork home, select sugar skulls are available for purchase, offering a personal connection to Villagómez's reimagined deities and her celebration of cultural resilience.

Casa Romantica offers a delightful variety of weekly classes and workshops for all ages. Twirl into the week with a beginner-friendly ballet class every Monday, then find zen in a peaceful 9:15 AM meditation session on Tuesdays. Flow through midweek in a Wednesday yoga class in partnership with YNG Studios—be sure to bring a mat! Little ones can explore, sing, and dance in the gardens during Wednesday's enchanting Story Time at 10:30 AM, where Casa Romantica's dedicated volunteers lead book readings, songs, and garden adventures.

In addition to weekly activities, November brings a series of special events designed to captivate and educate. On November 9th, families can enjoy "Flower Songs Music: Casa Kids Performance Series," an interactive performance featuring indigenous culture, history, and music performed in English, Spanish, and indigenous languages by a talented family trio. For those interested in seasonal crafts, the Succulent Pumpkin Workshop on November 13th allows participants to create a unique Thanksgiving centerpiece. Music lovers can attend a French Jazz concert featuring vocalist Chloe Perrier on November 14th, and on November 21st, the Romantica Piano Quartet will perform classical favorites. Coffee enthusiasts can relax on November 15th at the monthly Coffee Concert, presented in collaboration with High Tide Coffee.

December ushers in a festive spirit with events that are perfect for the holiday season. Families can attend two performances of The Nutcracker by Ballet Academy & Movement on December 5th and 6th, tailored specifically to the intimate setting of Casa Romantica's newly reopened Main Salon. Children will delight in Cookies and Cocoa with Mrs. Claus on December 7th, an enchanting event complete with treats, warm beverages, and a family holiday photo opportunity with Casa Romantica's in-house photographer. ## WINE LEGENDS CAYMUS AND DAOU IMPRESS AT WEST END, PLUS MANGIA E BEVI PIZZA CHAMPION TORE TRUPIANO

Story and photos by Rico Cassoni

Del Mar's West End Bar & Kitchen Proprietor Sal Ercolano recently hosted two wine dinners featuring Caymus Vineyards and Daou Family Estates. Each winery is legendary in its own way, as are the five-course wine dinner menus crafted by Executive Chef Brian Gist. Caymus Vineyards, Mary Gavin, CA Regional Accounts & Strategic Retail Manager narrated the Caymus Wine Dinner with help from Brooke Malpede, San Diego Marketing Mgr. Daou Family Estate, Daniel Brunner, Western Region Mgr. narrated the Daou Wine Dinner and was assisted by Eryn Schnitzler, Bus. Dev. Mgr. SoCal, and RNDC, John Parker, Senior Sales Mgr.

Caymus Vineyards was founded in 1972 by Chuck Wagner and his late parents, Lorna and Charlie Sr., in Rutherford—a Napa Valley region celebrated for its ideal grape-growing climate. Over 50 years later, Caymus Vineyards has become a Napa Valley institution. Caymus is one of only two wineries to earn Wine Spectator's Wine of the Year award twice—a testament to its legendary quality and dedication. Its Special Selection Cabernet Sauvignon received this honor with the 1984 vintage in 1989 and the 1990 vintage in 1994.

Under Chuck's leadership, Caymus grew into Wagner Family Wines to also include Conundrum, Mer Soleil, Emmolo, Red Schooner, Sea Sun, Bonanza, and Caymus-Suisun brands. These brands showcase diverse styles, from Cabernet Sauvignon to Chardonnay and distinctive blends. Today, Chuck's children are deeply involved in the family business. Charlie Wagner oversees winemaking for Conundrum, Red Schooner, and Mer Soleil, while Jenny Wagner leads Emmolo and The Walking Fool winemaking. Additionally, Chuck's other son, Joe Wagner, founded Copper Cane Wines & Provisions, producing Quilt, Belle Glos, Elouan, and Boen brands and is also the winemaker.

As Caymus celebrates its 50th anniversary with the 2022 vintage, the winery remains rooted in Napa Valley, producing wines that reflect decades of expertise. Visitors to the winery can experience the Wagner family's multi-generational dedication to quality. See more at caymus.com

Daou Family Estates was founded by brothers Georges and Daniel Daou, inspired by their father, Joseph, whose love of wine sparked their own passion. Originally from Lebanon, the family relocated to France due to civil unrest, and later, the brothers moved to San Diego, attended UCSD, and founded a successful tech company. In 2008, after selling the business, they pursued their winemaking dream in Paso Robles. After scouting over 200 locations worldwide, they found their ideal terroir on DAOU Mountain—a site with limestone-rich, calcareous soils and a climate akin to Napa Valley.

Daniel's meticulous winemaking philosophy combines scientific precision with artistic vision. Daou's flagship wine, Soul of a Lion, honors their father's legacy. This age-worthy Cabernet, crafted from free-run juice and aged in custom bois rosé French oak barrels for 22 months, consistently achieves some of the highest phenolics in Cabernet globally.

Daniel's commitment extends beyond DAOU Mountain, promoting Paso Robles as a serious Cabernet region through the Paso Robles CAB Collective. DAOU wines, crafted with proprietary yeasts and expert practices, have redefined Paso Robles winemaking, gaining global acclaim.

In a recent milestone, Treasury Wine Estates acquired Daou Vineyards in a deal valued up to $1 billion. This acquisition includes DAOU Mountain Estate and 400 acres in Paso Robles, with Georges and Daniel Daou remaining actively involved, with Daniel as chief winemaker. The dinner concluded with a rich chocolate decadence cake and marinated mixed berries, paired with The Walking Fool Red Blend.

The elegant Daou Wine Dinner opened with Ahi Tuna Tartare paired with Daou Sauvignon Blanc and an arugula salad with Granny Smith apples and goat cheese paired with Daou Reserve Chardonnay. The main course was a braised beef short rib with truffle Parmesan Yukon mashed potatoes and roasted carrots, exquisitely paired with the flagship 2021 Soul of a Lion Bordeaux Blend. ## BALBOA ISLAND UNVEILS STUNNING PARK AVENUE MURAL - A TRIBUTE TO COMMUNITY AND LEGACY

The Balboa Island community celebrated the long-anticipated unveiling of the Park Avenue Mural on a perfect Sunday afternoon, October 27, 2024. The mural, which stretches 56 feet along the south-facing wall of the Irvine Ranch Market, is a vibrant tribute to Balboa Island's history, created by renowned local artist Barbara Abbott. For the hundreds of residents and supporters who gathered, it was a moment to celebrate both art and community, a perfect blend of creativity, legacy, and pride.

The event had the relaxed charm of Balboa Island, with families, friends, and familiar faces coming together to share in the unveiling of what has quickly become an iconic addition to the island. The iridescent tile mosaic is not just a decoration, it is a visual storybook that captures the essence of Balboa Island's unique landmarks, featuring scenes that evoke nostalgia, beauty, and a sense of place. Barbara Abbott, chosen by a grassroots committee of local residents four years ago, has created a masterpiece that will undoubtedly bring joy to countless viewers for generations to come.

"The creative process has been a great joy," Abbott shared as she addressed the crowd. "I am sincerely proud to be able to share this urban art form with our own Newport family community, along with so many people who visit Balboa Island year-round. Most exciting and gratifying is that the mural will hopefully bring a smile to faces for generations to come." Her words drew cheers and applause from the enthusiastic crowd. It was clear that this mural was more than just an art project—it was a gift from Abbott, destined to enhance the beauty of the island.

Several notable community members attended the event, including producers Lee and Sue Pearl, who worked tirelessly alongside the grassroots committee to see this project come to life. The unveiling also saw the presence of an impressive list of donors and supporters who contributed their time, efforts, and resources to make the mural a reality, from Don Abrams, Heather and Larry Arnold to Newport Beach Mayor Will O'Neill and Councilwoman Robin Grant. It was an afternoon filled with admiration for a project that represents the spirit of community collaboration.

Shirley Pepys, founder and CEO of the Balboa Island Museum, along with her daughter Renee Lowe, stood proudly in front of a mural panel that depicted the museum itself, capturing its significance in preserving the history of this beloved island. Pepys spoke about how this mural represents a culmination of efforts by dedicated residents who wanted to create something truly meaningful for Balboa Island. "This mural is a legacy gift, something we hope will inspire generations to cherish our island as much as we do today," she said. Her sentiment was echoed by many in the crowd, including John Conners, board president of the Balboa Island Museum, who worked closely with Lee and Sue Pearl and the core volunteers to create a legacy foundation that raised the necessary funds not only for the creation but also for the preservation of the mural.

Manouch Moshayedi, owner of the Irvine Ranch Market, expressed his pride in supporting the mural installation. "I'm honored to have the mural on the side of our building," Moshayedi said. "It's a perfect tribute to the spirit of this community, and I'm thrilled to see so many people here to celebrate it." His building now serves as the backdrop to a piece of art that will forever symbolize the history and legacy of Balboa Island.

The unveiling ceremony was a delightful experience, complete with children running around excitedly, friends catching up, and the tantalizing scent of coffee and pastries filling the air, a true testament to the warmth of Balboa Island. Attendees posed for photos, admired each of the mural's individual panels, and marveled at the craftsmanship that went into every tile. A bronze plaque will soon be added to commemorate the contributions of the many local citizens who made the mural possible, ensuring that every hand that helped will be remembered.

This event was not only about the unveiling of an art piece but about the power of community, the power of people coming together with a common vision and creating something that will stand as a symbol of their shared love for Balboa Island.

As the sun set, casting a warm glow over the island, there was a palpable sense of achievement and joy among the attendees. This mural is now a part of Balboa Island's story, a reflection of the people who make it such a cherished place to call home, reminding everyone of the beauty that can be achieved when a community works together.

Directory Advertising Hits the Jackpot for Small Business with a Limited Ad Budget $49.95

"I'm not a big business, but I know that you have to advertise someplace and these little ads don't cost too much so I figure if you expect to get any new customers, I gave the little 'directory' ads in the newspaper a try. Nothing happened for the first week, not even a phone call. Then Boom! comes three new customers. Paid for my little ads and a nice profit. I'd say I hit the jackpot. Sign me up for another week newspaper ladies!"

The above story may not be exciting but is typical of advertisers who are shopping for advertising that is affordable but gives them something back for their money. Here's another:

As a Woman Who Owns A Small Business These Newspaper Directory Ads are a Great Value

"We women have to work harder to make a small business grow. Thanks to small, affordable ads in this newspaper I've got ads running every week. Every call helps my business grow. I give you an A+ for good prices and steady results."

Looking for the Penny Saver in all the Wrong Places

"I Used to get pretty good results from the Penny Saver, but when the Penny Saver closed up, I found this newspaper's little directory ads are even cheaper and work just about as good. Usually get two or three calls a month and most of them wind up being my customers. My bookkeeper says your directory ads work pretty good for the money"

Newspaper Directory Ads Worked Just Fine, Cost Less than Half!- Nice!

"We tried some slick magazine ads that had beautiful pictures on the cover and they worked real good for a while but they were costing us an arm and a leg so we tried these little directory ads in your newspaper. The ads are smaller, but cost way less than half of what we were paying the magazines and the newspaper directory ads seem to work about as well. We are glad we tried them. They are a pretty good deal for the low price."

New Business Owner Likes Lower Priced Ads

"I Just Started my New Business and Happy that I Can Afford Your Newspaper Directory Ads. I need to attract new customers and these ads are priced just right."
